

K-Love Radio serves me as a resident in the Phoenix community by providing upbeat/positive Christian radio without commercials. If K-Love were to be displaced by an LPFM broadcaster, my family may not have the same family-friendly programming that we have come to enjoy. I believe that keeping K-Love on-air is in the public interest as it supports wholesome values and has a positive and encouraging impact on communities all across America.